

FREE TENNIS FOR KIDS SUMMER 2008

We're taking the 'pay' out of 'pay and play' tennis!
Juniors play for free at all 'Will to Win Public Tennis Centres' summer 08

Will to Win tennis- ' the largest private provider of public tennis in London' is opening its doors to all junior tennis players free of charge – and there's no catch!

Will to Win Tennis is continuing this initiative following on from the success of the 2007 programme. This will ensure that any junior in London, whoever they are, wherever they come from, will have the opportunity to play tennis on some of London's finest outdoor courts this summer.

Will to Win Tennis works closely with the Royal Parks operating the centres in Hyde, Regents and Greenwich Park and also operates a City tennis club at the Regents Park site. With mini tennis courts and 4 floodlit courts now in place the junior involvement is increasing rapidly. Public centres are also in place in Ealing and Chiswick House following partnership agreements with Hounslow and Ealing councils.

2008 sees The Regents and the Hyde Park centres providing 10 schools in Camden and Westminster with free coaching, and two more free festivals, as we strive to reach our goal of breaking down the barriers of participation in tennis for all juniors.

The Royal Parks have commented, "The Parks are all about enjoyment and the healthy lifestyle. What better place to play tennis than surrounded the peace and beauty of the Parks?"

The courts are available on a walk on basis free of charge courts on weekdays between 3 and 6pm for any junior in London during May, June, July and August, with no membership, no playing-in requirements, and no criteria to satisfy – it really is Tennis for All.

There is absolutely no reason why any junior should feel they couldn't play tennis this summer.

We hope this will be the first of many successful years allowing open participation in tennis for juniors in London. Who knows, maybe the next Andrew Murray is just waiting for this opportunity.
